17. What are your main activities?

A platform for access to credible energy and power market information for aspiring entrepreneurs: women, youth and persons with disabilities.

In the energy and power sector, AWEaP believes that unless women KNOW and UNDERSTAND the entrepreneurial opportunities that exist in the sector, they will not be able to:

opt to participate in the sector,

choose an area of focus (or areas that resonate with their business interests), align themselves with the relevant actors in the ecosystem;

access credible market information ;

organize themselves to participate effectively and sustainably

The representation of women-owned companies in the energy and power sector remains poor.

To address this, we have created information-sharing and sector orientation sessions for women entrepreneurs interested in the energy and power sector.
